MRS. BASIL W. DUKE

Dies While Asleep.--Sister Of The Famous General John Morgan.

Mrs. Henrietta Morgan Duke, formerly of Lexington, wife of General Basil Duke, sister of the famous Confederate cavalry leader, General John H. Morgan, and one of the most prominent and best beloved women of Kentucky, died in Louisville Tuesday night. Mrs. Duke was found dead in bed at her home Wednesday morning, supposedly from heart trouble.

Mrs. Duke's last visit to Lexington was in January, when she came to confer with members of the Daughters of the Confederacy relative to the Morgan monument.

Besides her husband, General Duke, who is perhaps the most distinguished survivor of General Morgan's old command, Mrs. Duke is survived by several children: Mrs. Wilbur Mathews, of New York, formerly Miss Currie Duke, the noted violinist; Mrs. Charles Ray, of Franklin, Mass.; Mrs. Samuel Duke; Dr. Calvin Duke, Basil Duke, Jr., and Henry Duke, of Louisville. One other daughter, Mrs. Sidney Ballou, formerly Miss Fannie Duke, died in Honolulu, leaving one child. Two brothers, Col. R. C. Morgan and Col. Charlton Morgan, both of Lexington, and one sister, Mrs. Catherine G. Foreythe, who formerly lived in Lexington, but who now resides in Virginia, also survive. Other near Lexington relatives are John H. Morgan, son of Calvin C. Morgan, a nephew, Mrs. James H. Mulligan, a cousin, and Major Alex G. Morgan, also a cousin. She was also related to the Hunts and other prominent Kentucky families.

The funeral service was held Thursday afternoon in Louisville and interment took place Friday morning in Lexington cemetery.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by all dealers. 13-4.

Physicians Say Hospitals For Insane Are a Disgrace.

The Insane Asylums of Kentucky came in for condemnation at the Kentucky Medical Association's session. Dr. Curran Pope, of Louisville, said that the asylums for the insane in Kentucky are a disgrace, and that while it has had examples set for the past twenty years of modern treatment of the insane, Kentucky has failed to take advantage. He said the asylums were relics of barbarism and dark ages.

PROTECTION

Of Innocent Women And Children Of Future.--Will Urge Bill Before The Next Legislature.

In order that innocent women shall be protected and future generations spared the "sins of their fathers," shall urge upon the next Legislature a bill substantially as follows:

Section 1. Each male person applying for a license to marry in this Commonwealth shall submit himself to a physical examination by a competent physician, who shall be appointed by the County Judge for that purpose, and, before said license shall be issued to him, the physician making said examination shall state in writing under oath that he is not related by blood or marriage to the applicant, and that said applicant is not infested with any venereal disease. The fee to said physician for said examination shall be one dollar, and shall be paid by said applicant. Every County Judge shall act, and every two years thereafter appoint one or more physicians to make the examinations required herein.

Section 2. If any physician shall make a false statement he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years; and if any clerk shall issue any marriage license before the examination of the applicant and the filing of the sworn statement, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

No discussion of the merits of this proposed legislation is necessary. Every intelligent reader knows that it ought to become a law. To make it law public opinion must be molded in its favor. This is a work for the respectable citizens of the State. Let every man and woman, every respectable society, and every church organization sign a petition requesting the passage of this bill.

I should be pleased to have the opinion of men and women from all parts of the State.

Respectfully submitted,
HUBERT MENDITH,
Greenville, Ky.

SMOOTH SCHEME

For Swindling Hotels--Lexington Detectives Warned.

Lexington detectives have been warned to be on the lookout for one of the smoothest criminals in the East who is thought to be in this section of the United States. The man swindles hotels and at present time is wanted at Washington. The scheme is to register at a hotel and after he has apparently established credit he will go out and soon the clerk of the hotel will be summoned to the telephone. The "guest" will then tell him that he has bought a suit of clothes and that they are to be delivered "C. O. D." He asks the clerk to pay for them if they are delivered while he is out. Of course the suit is delivered while he is "out" and the clerk pays the delivery boy. The guest fails to return to the hotel and on opening the box containing the suit it is found to contain nothing but old papers.

BRIBERS IN ELECTION.

Recipient of Money a Competent Witness Against Man Who Buys a Vote.

Hoping to prevent the use of money at elections, a bill changing the present law concerning bribery has been prepared by Judge T. L. Blakey, Assistant Attorney General. The bill will be introduced in the Senate by Senator A. R. Burnam, of Richmond. The most important provision of the new bill makes the man who receives the bribe a competent witness against the man who offers the bribe.

THE PROPOSED BILL.

The chief sections are: First—Every person who promises, offers, gives or causes or procures to be promised, offered or given any money or other things of value, or makes or tenders any contract, undertaking, obligation, gratuity or security for the payment of money, or for the delivery or conveyance of anything of value to any voter, with intent to influence his vote at any election, primary or political convention, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a period of not less than one nor more than five years.

Second—The voter so influenced shall be guilty of no offense, and no prosecution shall be instituted against him, but said voter shall be a competent witness against the party or parties so influencing or offering to influence his vote.

Cornwallis' Surrender Observed.

On the historic ground where Lord Cornwallis 128 years ago sealed the doom of Britain's rule over what is now a part of the United States, patriotic Americans gathered at Yorktown, Va., on Oct. 19 to celebrate the anniversary of the famous surrender. The inaccessibility of the place made the attendance comparatively small. The school children of Yorktown and surrounding counties marched to the great monument erected at Yorktown.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Mt. Sterling Readers Know What It Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains.

Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follows.

A Mt. Sterling citizen tells here the way to keep the kidneys well. John W. Foreman, of Montgomery St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I think my kidney trouble was the result of heavy work. I was compelled to give up all work that required stooping on account of a weak and lame back. I had been laid up for several days at a time and some time ago began to look around for a cure. Until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at F. C. Duerson's drug store, I did not find anything that would prove of benefit to me. I was soon well and strong and now am entirely free from kidney trouble. I am pleased to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

It Was The Tide.

"It was a mistake," said Mayor Story, of Atlantic City, discussing a recent governmental difficulty. "These people failed to understand the difficulty, just as a man from Okoboji, in Iowa, failed last week to understand the tides."

"This man sat on the beach, close to the water, munching a bag of peanuts. A fat lady, one of the end-of-the-season bathers, gambled in the waves near him. She shrieked, hopped up and down, and flapped about with arms and legs, and meanwhile the waves crept nearer and nearer the Okoboji peanut-eater."

He regarded the advancing water sternly. All of a sudden a stronger wave than usual swept up the beach, and—splash—the man was dashed with spray.

"Hi!" he shouted, scowling blackly at the lapping bathers. "Hi, fatty! stop that there bobbin' about before ye drown a feller, will ye?"

Could Not Eat.

W. H. Clay, Lexington, Ky., says: "Our fowls were so sick with cholera, some of them could not eat. We poured Bourbon Peppery Cure down them and did not have a single fowl to die." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY. This is the way to vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

Right doing exalts a man, a community, a nation.

Yes, we will vote for the $50.00 bond for a sewerage system.

God is on the side of men who remember his commandments to do them.

We are not surprised that some counties are not developed, when we see the bad roads.

We will not find fault with a Republican who cannot support every candidate on his ticket.

Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Some men prefer to seek the devil, and of course they find him.

Some men during election times leave God out of consideration. Whatsoever a man sow that shall he also reap.

When we saw two horses going in a fast trot, drawing a wagon full of corn we were assured that good roads pay.

Democrats and Republicans should vote for the Constitutional Amendment, thus enabling the counties to have good roads.

The tax rate will not be increased in raising the fund for a sewer. A reapportionment of expenses will supply the needed funds.

VOTE "YES" ON BOND ISSUE.

Voters in the city will please read this extract:

Some of our citizens have cesspools which hold sewerage for months, excepting what gradually leaks or filters through the soil, often into cisterns and wells. In this way a large tank of sewerage is held while the foulest putrefaction takes place and poisonous gases are continually given off. Few, if any, houses contain plumbing adopted to exclude these gases from the air of the dwelling, and these gases, in addition to being very objectionable, lower the vitality and render the body more susceptible to diseases of all kinds.

The only remedy for this evil is a sanitary sewerage system. To have this, the bond issue must carry. Bear in mind, if the bond issue carries, the tax rate is not to be increased since the interest on the bonds, etc., must be provided for out of the taxes collected at present rate.

A vote for the bond issue, is a vote upon the side of health, without an increase of taxes, and it is hoped that every voter, regardless of political affiliations, will vote "YES" on the bond issue.

Respectfully,
C. W. HARRIS, Mayor.
W. S. LLOYD,
J. S. FRAZER,
C. C. CHENAILT,
W. R. THOMPSON,
County Health Officer.
C. H. BAYAN,
Chairman Sewer Commission.

An investment of $50,000 in a sewerage system for the town will be a paying investment—A considerable part of this amount will go for labor. The health conditions will be much improved and our town will have one more inducement for people to locate here.

It is a great privilege to have a voice in selecting officers who direct the policies, enact and execute the laws. Let all voters use it aright. Because the Democrats have opposition only in Fiscal Court should not excuse us for indifference.

The economic expenditure of money for good roads brings a great return in time saved in travel, in larger loads hauled at less expense, and is a saving on the worry and fret aspect of life.

Shelburne's Tobacco Warehouse.

Below we give some of the prices made on Oct. 23d and 23d, 1909:
M. S. Simpson: 20, 17.75, 17, 16.75, 16.25, 13. Clayne Davis: 17.50, 17.25, 16.25, 12.25, 12.50, 12.25, 11.75, 9.50. Brack Viley: 17.25, 14.75, 12.50, 12.75, 11.75, 8.25. Walton & Carrier: 16.75, 15.50, 13.25, 13.25, 11.75, 10.75. This shows that the market continues strong. All the good sound sweet crops of any color are selling at good prices, making averages of from $14 to $16. A large part of the crop is lacking in quality and color, and we cannot expect it to sell for high prices. Such crops average from $10 to $12.

We will have several new buyers on the market by the middle of the week, and we have every reason to expect the market to continue strong from this time on. We want you to come and hear our new auctioneer, Mr. Roberts. He is the best in the country, and we think he will please you. He calls the bids off clear and loud so that you can tell what the tobacco is bringing. Yours truly,

Idaho Actors' Wardrobe.
Tommy Post, one of the many stage folk living at the house on Grove street burned recently, was the host of the actors stopping there. He lost a nightshirt and a red bandana handkerchief, and the leg of one of his trousers was water-soaked. He will take immediate steps to replenish his wardrobe.—Idaho Statesman.

Scarcity of Humor.
It is to be feared that if the papers resorted to a special corner once each week for the witicism of the week, it would be left blank. There is no wit to speak of to-day, only a feeble imitation of it which people are fond of calling the saving sense of humor.—London Saturday Review.

Practical Economy.
If you would succeed in business, never spend a cent more than you earn. No matter how small your earnings, you should master this art. I use the word "art" advisedly, as so many young men appear to fritter away without so much as a thought, all their earnings.—Marshall Field.

No Moral in This Story.
In June, 1898, a poor man called at the humble dwelling of a washerwoman on the West side. He said he was starving, and she gave him half a dollar. Nothing was heard of him until one day last week, when he called again and got another half dollar.—Smart Set.

Starfish Defies Capture.
The starfish, netted, commits suicide. It dissolves into many pieces, which escape through the meshes of the net. Then a kind of resurrection takes place, each piece growing into a perfect starfish.

The Boy and the Cigarette.
The small boy with the cigarette is like the poor, always with us. He makes his presence felt in the streets as he puffs his weed or its legend in lordly imitation of his elders. He ought to be repressed with a strong hand.—Exchange.

Naturalization Requisite.
A residence of at least five years is required to qualify an alien for naturalization. No matter how long a man may have been in the United States, two years must elapse between the date of his declaration of intention and his admittance to full citizenship.

A Soporific.
Miss Gusher (who has just been introduced to the great author)—Oh, Mr. Lynde, I am so enchanted with your dear, delightful novel. I fall asleep with one in my hand every night.—Sunday Magazine

STRUCK WITH ROCK,

Skull Fractured and Victim in Serious Condition.

On Saturday the writer went to Lexington. On train he met Mr. Ashberry Kash, of Neola, Wolfe county, who had spent Friday night with his son-in-law, Jerry Hatfield, near Thompson station. Mr. Kash was en route to see his brother, Dr. M. C. Kash, of Salyersville, who for over three weeks has been in a Louisville hospital. On Saturday night, Oct. 2, while walking on the street at Salyersville Dr. Kash was struck on the forehead over the left eye with a rock thrown by a young man, Fred Adams. The rock after cutting through the hat and sweatband fractured both frontal bones. On Sunday the Doctor was taken to Paintsville, about 20 miles, walking by train to Louisville. His condition became so serious that his brother went to see him and he so remains.

A Child's Comment.
Even little children are amazed at the backwardness of New York. A bright youngster of five, crossing over from New Jersey and seeing the West street transportation relic for the first time, jerked her father's coat-tails nearly off, exclaiming: "Oh, papa, see the trolley cars being pulled by horses!"—N. Y. Press.

No Mustaches in Alaska.
Mustaches are not worn by men exposed to the severity of an Alaskan winter. They wear full beards to protect the throat and face, but keep the upper lip clean shaven. The moisture from the breath congelates so quickly that a mustache becomes imbedded in a solid cake of ice, and the face is frozen in a short time.

Always Snow on Pike's Peak.
There is never a part of the year when Pike's Peak is entirely without snow. In the hottest July and August weather snow is to be found even at a considerable distance from the top of the mountain.

The Sense of Duty.
A sense of duty pursues us ever. It is omnipresent like the Deity. It waxes to ourselves the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, duty performed or duty violated is still with us, for our happiness or our misery. If we say the darkness shall cover us, in the darkness as in the light our obligations are with us yet.—Daniel Webster.

Wise Rats.
The depredation of rats in his chicken yard caused Harry A. Lehr of York, Pa., to spread rat poison beneath the floor of his chicken coop. Instead of eating the poison the rats removed it to different parts of the yard. The next morning it was eaten by the fowls, as a result of which Mr. Lehr's flock of chickens is largely deceased.

Nightingales Under a Ban.
It is said that no nightingales sing in Haverling, England. Legend has it that the singing of the birds disturbed the devotions of Edward the Confessor when at his Haverling palace, and he therefore placed them under a ban from which they have never recovered.

As She Understood It.

More New Fall! Suits and Waists

The Story of Their Materials and Designs
Told in This Initial Showing of Stylish Models

The dominant note of all the styles of course will be the "Moyen Age." This fashion note of the medieval period will be seen in the garments of every description. It shows itself most prominently in the Suits, for the reason that the long coat effects are the salient features of this sixteenth century style. In waists the tailored modes continue their undisputed sway.

Words but poorly portray the beauty and the novelty of our suits and waists for the present season. To tell of the beauty of these colorings, the richness of the cloths and the thoroughness of their making is impossible.

Clothes Talk

The value of Hand-Tailored Clothes is fully appreciated by the man who wears them. He is the one man who knows what real comfort and mind contentment stand for. Changing from the average garment to the individual Hand-Tailored is like stepping from an ox cart into an auto.

There is such a deep feeling of satisfaction steals over you that you wonder why you have not awakened long ago. It is certainly the privilege of every man to be stylishly and comfortably clad.

Hirsh, Wickwire & Co.

America's best make of Men's Ready-to-Wear Clothes in the Fall 1909 models are now ready for your inspection. Remember that every garment turned out by this firm is individually hand-tailored and in a class all to itself, guaranteeing to the wearer of these garments that comfort and mind contentment that the man who knows he is right is entitled to.

Jolt For Liquor Men.

Officers will break the seals of cars of inter-state shipments whenever they have reason to suspect that liquor consigned to Oklahoma residents are contained in the cars, beginning today, says a Muskogee, Oklahoma, special of October 9.
This agreement was reached by W. J. Crump, prosecuting attorney of Muskogee county and C. L. Jackson, general counsel for the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad in Oklahoma. It comes as a result of a recent decision of Justice Brewer of the Supreme Court of the United States to the effect that the Inter-State Commerce Law does not protect shipments of liquor into prohibition States.
This is a valuable weapon for the enforcement officers and they will be able to shut off the wholesalers who hitherto have been able to bring all the liquor and beer they needed into the State in car-load lots.
It was agreed that whenever officers demanded to search a car the railroad agents will send a man to break the seals and assist in the search.

Lot Sale.

At East Main street sale of Lots made by H. Clay McKee & Sons, Agents, last Saturday, a good crowd was in attendance, though the weather was bad. Bidding was spirited and the seven lots offered sold in lots for $2,945, then offered as a whole, brought $3,350, and were bought by R. A. Chiles and N. H. POULTRY NOTES.

Just because we haven't a flock of fancy birds is no reason why we should let things take care of themselves in the poultry yard.

We can at least do the best our circumstances allow, and then perhaps it won't be long until we can improve those circumstances.

If we can't afford a new chicken house, we can tighten the walls and roof of the old one, and put in good solid roosts.

If your breed is a heavy one, prevent bumble foot by having the roosts low down.

Lice are less numerous as the weather gets cooler but if you are not on your guard enough of the pests will hide in crevices to make trouble next spring.

Damp weather is a breeder of poultry diseases. These cool damp nights the chickens have no business in trees and on fences.

At this time of the year is the worst season for roup, and this trouble spreads rapidly, so lose no time in separating an afflicted bird from the others.

The fall of the year is a good time to start with ducks. Four or five ducks and a drake furnish a very good start.

Turkeys do not eat as much grain as chickens. In the late fall or winter they eat much clover, fodder and other roughage with their grain.

Austin P. Filey, late of Worcester, Mass., has accepted a professorship in Drury College, where he is to teach the English Bible under the direction of the Christian Churches of South Missouri. Drury College, which is a high-grade non-sectarian institution, affords the disciples of southern Missouri a splendid opportunity.

Saved Them.

Dr. J. O. Gresson, State Sec'y of American Veterinary Medical Ass'n, Kokomo, Ind., says: "The herd of hogs on which the Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy was used, was sold yesterday. We give this remedy the credit of saving them."

Prisoner on Rockpile.

No damages can be recovered by a prisoner employed on the city rock pile for injuries received at the hands of another prisoner, under a decision of the Court of Appeals. The case was that of James Jackson against the City of Owensville. Jackson was injured by a sledge in the hands of a prisoner. The court here says that a municipality is the agent of the State when enforcing the criminal laws of the State and city and is not responsible for the negligent acts of the agents.

Same Here.

One of the hehans given the Japanese bride is "Do not talk too much." The constant stress laid on this advice is a sure sign that it isn't being heeded.

Confusion of Poisons.

The Russians may make a mistake in putting a skull-and-cross-bones label on bottles of vodka. They will teach the simple peasant, who cannot read, to look for the poison label when he is thirsty, and who can tell how much carbolic acid, vitriol and such deadly drugs will be taken in the guise of the other poison?

Throng of Buyers Continue.

The people of Mt. Sterling and vicinity appreciate the great advantage W. S. Lloyd obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to allow the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Every bottle of the specific sold by W. S. Lloyd has had his personal guarantee to refund the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at W. S. Lloyd's today, for he has only a small amount of the specific on hand. 14-16.

From an English Geography.

"In that part of America which is known as New Jersey the mosquitoes are so thick that a herd of rhos, crossing a railroad track, will frequently hold up a train."—Puck.

METHOD OF INDUCING SLEEP

Self-Suggestion Plays a Great Part—Worry is the Main Thing to Be Avoided.

The next point to bear in mind is that self-suggestion plays a great part in the production of sleep, writes Dr. S. McComb in Harper's Bazar. Ordinarily we do not sleep by accident or by chance. We resolve to sleep. We go through a variety of actions all suggestive of a change from our normal waking condition. We undress, we place ourselves in a comfortable position, we close our eyes. We believe and expect that we are going to sleep, and the result is sleep. One of the great preventatives of sleep is the fear of not sleeping. Once this fear is broken down, we sleep. The insomnia worries about his insomnia, and this very worry deepens the mischief. Hence the sufferer should suggest to himself again and again: "If I sleep, well, if I don't sleep I will at least gain rest by keeping my mind calm and my body relaxed." In a word, our chances of getting sleep increase if we assume the external physical attitude which corresponds to sleep, if we relax every muscle and let it stay relaxed, if we breathe lightly and regularly, if we call up the imaginations of a sleeping person, and talk and think sleep to ourselves, repeating silently and in a quiet dreamy fashion such a formula as this: "There is no reason why I should not sleep. My mind is at peace. Sleep is coming. I am getting asleep. I am about to sleep. I am asleep."

EASY TO DETECT BAD MONEY

Hold Bill Up to the Light and Examine the Blue Threads in the Paper.

Despite the utmost vigilance of our official secret service men, the circulating counterfeit money in this country has not been wholly suppressed. Spurious coins and paper tokens occasionally get into circulation and some of these are so well done as almost to defy detection by experts.

Among the latest samples of the counterfeiters' art is a $10 bill, one of the clearest imitations on record. A specimen of this issue was received and paid out by several banks, being regarded by all who handled it as genuine. In time it reached the sub-treasury at New York and there its spuriousness at once became known. On first inspection the bill appears to be a real product of the treasury department, but when held up to the light the particles of silk, which in a genuine bill are curved and twisted in the paper, are seen to be straight and hard. A magnifying glass shows the slight discrepancies between the face of the bill and that of a genuine one.

Subtreasury officials state that the bogus note was manufactured by a master in the art who may once have been employed in the bureau of engraving at Washington. Every person who receives a $10 bill, says Leslie's Weekly, should apply to it at least the simple test above given of holding it up to the light and noting the condition of the silk threads.

True to Memory of Beau Nash.

The famous Beau Nash was at one time extremely fond of a beautiful girl called Juliana Poppy, sometimes known as the Hichposton belle. She used to ride about the streets of Bath on a fine gray horse carrying a whip with many things, a fad which gained for her the title of Lady Betty Beom. Juliana was very kind-hearted and during the last five years of the beau's life she nursed him devotedly. After his death she vowed that she would never again sleep in a bed and took up her abode in a large hollow tree, where she lived for many years, earning a scanty livelihood by selling herb medicines and fetching and carrying. At last Juliana became very ill and, knowing she could not possibly recover, she felt an intense longing to die in her old cottage home at Hichposton. More dead than alive, she set out on this last journey, and managed to reach the house where she was born in time to die there.

Eugene Field's Joke on Dr. Hale.

Edward Everett Hale greatly enjoyed a joke which was perpetrated on him by Eugene Field, says the Woman's Home Companion. Field celebrated one of Hale's visits to Chicago by giving a luncheon in his honor, inviting a number of prominent persons to meet him. "Field was aware," said Hale, "that I was a temperance man, and therefore I was somewhat surprised to see that the table on which the luncheon was served was very abundantly supplied with bottles labeled 'whisky,' 'brandy' and 'champagne.' But when these bottles came to be uncorked they were all found to contain nothing but water."

Different.

"I wrote him that I was ready to come home."
"Was he glad?"
"He wrote me that he would have to borrow money to pay my fare."
"What did you do?"
"I asked him what I should do, and he said he would borrow money enough for me to stay there a while longer."

Described.

"Pa, what is meant by a nervous wreck?"
"A nervous wreck, my boy, is something that a woman says she is every time she gets a headache."—Detroit Free Press.
